

In association with

SAVE THE DATE

Press Freedom Conference in Sofia, Bulgaria

May 16, 2018

Dear xx,

The Union of Publishers in Bulgaria in association with the European Magazine Media Association, European Newspapers Publishers Association, European Federation of Journalists, in partnership with Reports Without Borders, Association of European Journalists, European Centre for Press and Media Freedom and Union of Bulgarian Journalists– would like to formally invite you to the conference:

Media freedom and pluralism: how to reboot an essential EU pillar

which will take place on 16 May 2018 in : Hilton Sofia Hotel, Bulgaria to focus on media policy in the EU, issues related to press freedom in individual EU countries and more generally on sustainability of the independent press. Representatives from the publishing sector, EU stakeholders and decision-makers will gather to discuss press freedom in a call to prioritize media freedom and plurality in the EU in the forthcoming years.

The confirmed speakers at this conference include Michal Boni, EP Member; Tomasz Piatek, investigative journalist; Mirosław Wróblewski, Director of the Department of Constitutional, International and European Law; Václav Štětka, researcher and expert on media policies; Gabor Polyak, Director of Mertek Media Monitor, and many more speakers to be confirmed soon.

The agenda of the conference can be viewed here:

Kind regards,

EMMA, ENPA, UPB, EFJ

Register here!